District Judge Donald C. Nugent has referred this case to me for general pretrial supervision.¹

I currently have pending before me three motions filed by plaintiff Jeffrey D. Mann:

- Motion for federal marshall [sic] service of process and to proceed in forma pauperis,²
- Motion for extension of time to accomplish service of process,³ and
- Motion for emergency injunctive relief and for sanctions.⁴

The motion for federal marshal service and to proceed in forma pauperis is hereby granted. All of the defendants named in the amended complaint⁵ are individuals. The Marshal may, in his discretion, attempt to accomplish service by certified mail, return receipt requested, in accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(e)(1).

Mann's motion for extension of time to accomplish service of process is hereby granted. Service must be completed by June 26, 2014.

Judge Nugent has previously denied Mann's motion for emergency injunctive relief⁶ and reconsideration of the denial of that motion.⁷ To the extent that the current emergency motion may be within the scope of this referral, I recommend its denial for the reasons set forth by Judge Nugent in his earlier orders.
